LOCAL NEWS.

The Versailles laundry has opened up for business.

Dr. C. A. Wiest, of Stover, was looking after business matters here Monday.

G. E. Petty's Poland-China hog sale takes place at Potter's feed barn Saturday afternoon.

General Shafter, of Cuban war fame, died at his home at Rakersfield, Cal., Monday afternoon, after a week's illness.

Mrs. J. W. Hays, of Glensted, sends us the cash for our big offer. Try it and see, it is the biggest offer ever made.

The Odd Fellows Building Association directors held a business meeting at F. D. Harrison's office last Saturday night.

The Young Ladies' Art Club will be entertained to-morrow afternoon by Miss Josie Biersach, at her home in the southeast part of town.

James Dudley and wife are this week making a visit with relatives and friends in the vicinity of Fortuna. While absent Jim expects to do some hunting in Moniteau county.

Owing to a slight error or two in the Morgan County election returns we publish them, corrected, this week. Also the township officers, which we failed to get in time for last issue.

President A. L. Ross, of the Bank of Versailles, who left last week for a trip to Artesia, New Mexico, expects to be back for the Bankers' Convention, which is to meet here on the 27th of November.

John Boltons's fine hunting dog ran into a barb wire fence Monday and his limbs and body were so badly cut that Dr. Callicotte had to close the wounds with a surgeon's needle, several stitches being necessary.

Mrs. M. H. Tipton, of the Walnut Grove neighborhood, who is a breeder of fine poultry, this week shipped a buff turkey gobble to Mrs. Wm. E. Murray, at Baring, Knox county, Missouri. Mrs. Tipton is having splendid success with her poultry.

We have just received a lot of fine paper, bond and parchment, suitable for typewriter, and the finest for letterheads, fine circulars, etc. Also a big lot of good white business envelopes. Give us a trial when you need anything in our line. Remember we do all kinds of printing that can be done in a country office, good work and reasonable prices.

Miss Annie Yarnell, who had been teaching one of the intermediate departments at the main building of our public schools, has taken charge of the 6th and 7th grades in the Martin block, owing to the resignation of Prof. Stith. Miss Mabel Livingston has been given Miss Annie's room, and now the children are at their school work as usual.

The fact that prices on real estate are gradually advancing in Morgan County was thoroughly proven here last week. Rev. David Bowman, who lives in Walnut Grove neighborhood, northeast of Versailles, sold his farm to a gentleman from Virginia, the price received was $50 per acre, and the purchaser did not buy until he had made a personal examination and was fully satisfied.

The annual meeting of the Missouri Bankers' Association convenes in this city on Tuesday, November 27th. A program prearranged by A. L. Ross, chairman of the officers of group 8, has been distributed and will be carried out. Dr. P. G. Woods and Dr. J. D. Hubbard are on the program for papers. There is to be an election of officers, and in the evening the Association will hold their annual banquet. There are 38 banks to be represented at this meeting.

W. H. Grimstead, of Moniteau county, was over to Versailles Monday, and made the REPUBLICAN an appreciative call.

Miss Annie Lewis Sims and members of her class, drove to Excelsior last Saturday night and gave a musical and elocutionary entertainment, which proved very satisfactory to all concerned.

Hon. Walter S. Dickey, of Kansas city, was here last Friday looking over the Versailles Brick Plant, in which he is financially interested. He was joined here by his friend, Jos. McCoy, Secretary State Republican Committee, and after inspecting the brick plant they had a hunt with Postmaster Mills, and McCoy proved the only Nimrod in the party, bagging one bunny.

D. C. Hardy, sr., was appointed by Gov. Folk to fill out the unexpired term of County Collector Cline, deceased. The appointment is a good one, as Mr. Hardy is one of our oldest and best citizens, and will see that everybody pays up, and that the taxpayer's cash is securely kept. Mr. Hardy was a member of the Board of Managers of the Missouri Training School at Boonville, which he resigned, and the Governor appointed D. E. Wray as his successor.

The Delineator for December is now out and this is the Christmas number of that famous fashion magazine. The issue contains over 200 pages, every one of which is interesting to the ladies. The plates and illustrations are the finest that artists can produce, and the fashion departments, as well as the literary features, are right up-to-date and the Delineator is at the head of the list as a fashion journal, and no woman can afford to be without it as an aid to keeping herself and the children well dressed.

F. G. Dresie this week purchased the Versailles Telephone System and has already taken charge, the company being under the management of Besie Bros. Mr. Besie is a first-class electrician and will have personal charge of the system. Changes are to be made for the convenience of patrons at the central office, while everything in connection with the system will be put in good shape and improvements made. The parents of the new proprietors will move here and become permanent residents, and John Brokmeyer, former manager, steps down and out. We are glad to welcome these new people as citizens, and we believe they have acquired a nice business.

JACOBS-LONG NUPTIALS.

Louis W. Jacobs and Miss Gorda G. Long, two of our prominent young society people, were united in marriage at 11:30 o'clock Monday morning, at the bride's home in the southwest part of this city, Rev. C. N. White, pastor of the Baptist church, performing the impressive ceremony, in the presence of only the two families and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Long, and is an estimable and accomplished young lady whose friends can be counted by the number of her acquaintances. She has been assisting her father for several months in his mercantile business, and her pleasing manner has made her new friends.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jacobs, is associated with his father in the blacksmithing and wood-working business in this city, and has all the qualities of a hustling, wide-awake business man who will make success a surety.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the couple departed on the Rock Island for a short honeymoon in St. Louis. On their return they will at once establish themselves in a neat cottage on North Monroe street. The REPUBLICAN joins their myriad of friends in wishing them a long, prosperous and happy wedded life.

The Leader office received a fine new 26-inch Chandler & Price paper cutter Monday.

The Versailles and Sedalia Ry. is being pushed to completion as fast as possible, but delayed somewhat waiting for material.

The Oddfellows building is again hung up for want of the upper joists, which, it is guessed, will get here some time, but not much before.

The Woman's Missionary Society meeting at the M. E. church Sunday evening was very entertaining, good papers, good music, and an able address on missionary work by the pastor, Rev. Emory.

The joke is on John Hannay, who, while running for collector, thought he was running for a two year office, and didn't find out any different until after the election. "Where ignorance is bliss," etc.

Bazaar and Turkey Supper.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church will hold their annual Bazaar and Turkey Supper, on Friday, December 7th. This affair, which has always been first-class in every respect, will be better than ever, this year. Wait for it.

Overcoats, Ladies' Coats, Blankets, Shoes. Children's Coats, Underwear, Woolens, Outings, Shirts, Suits for Men, Boys and Children, all going at lowest prices.

C. W. BIRSACH,
On the Corner.

Annual Flower Show.

The annual bazaar and flower show will be held at the opera house Thursday and Friday nights of this week, by the ladies of the Methodist church. To-morrow evening a turkey dinner will be served, beginning at 5 o'clock. Friday evening light refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee will be the bill of fare. A special program will be rendered the second evening.

Election of Officers.

Tuesday night, Dec. 4th, is the time for the election of officers of Versailles Lodge, No. 231, I. O. O. F. Every member should be present, and help elect the right brothers for the various offices. All Past Grands are urged to be present at that time to vote on Grand officers. Nominations will be made Tuesday night, Nov. 27th, and you ought to be there—in fact you should be there every meeting night.

Resolutions of Respect.

Hall of Versailles Lodge,
No. 231, I. O. O. F.,
November 12, 1906.
Died, Monday, Nov. 5th, 1906, Edwin Stanton Cline, aged 33 years, 4 months and 13 days.

We, your committee on resolutions, beg leave to offer the following as an expression of the members of this Lodge in respect to our deceased brother.

Edwin Stanton Cline was born and raised in Morgan County, and by his industry and business integrity he had won and enjoyed the respect and confidence of all who knew him. His life was not without its sorrow, pain and misfortune, for of these he certainly had more than his share, but he bore them with Christian fortitude; not a murmur of discontent ever passed his lips; until death came as a cheerful messenger and relieved him from all his pain, and gained for him a happy admittance into the great lodge above. Therefore be it,

RESOLVED, That we tender to his wife and children, parents, brothers and sisters, our sympathy and consolation in their great bereavement, and be it further

RESOLVED, That his memory will ever be sacred to us, and his Christian character, his friendly acts and true manhood, are testimony to the highest ranks of Odd Fellowship, and we shall ever hold him in grateful and affectionate remembrance. Be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be entered on the records of our Lodge, an engrossed copy be presented to the family, and a copy be furnished to the press.

County Court is still grinding as we go to press. If they get through, will give the balance of the story in our next.

The first snow of the season fell here Monday morning, just a few flakes, to let us see what snow was like. That was only a forerunner of the storm which swooped down on us Tuesday night, when about a four-inch blizzard struck us.

Still the Adventist meetings at Post Oak school house, west of this city, continue. Evangelist Miller says he doesn't feel free to close while there are so many attending every night. He preaches all through this week, and next Sunday forenoon and at 7 p. m.
